Mark Your Calendars!

The annual Mustard Seed Hygiene Collection will begin the weekend of May 2/3 and end the weekend of May 30/31. Most hygiene products are not covered under social services programs and can be hard for those in need to purchase them. Items such as toothpaste, tooth brushes, bar soap, shampoo, conditioner, shaving cream, razors, feminine products, toilet paper, and other hygiene products will be collected for distribution at the Mustard Seed in Georgetown. Collection bins will be at the entrances beginning May 2.

Blessed Brunch

Ladies!! You're invited to a Blessed Brunch, Saturday, May 9th, 10:30am, St. Patrick's Parish Center, Chittenango. Bring a dish to pass and a friend or two with you! Healing Mass...Sunday, April 26, 2:00pm, Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Syracuse. Bishop Lucia will celebrate this Mass in conjunction with National Child Abuse Prevention Month. Those attending are encouraged to pray for those who have been harmed and/or affected by abuse, and for all those who have a role in the healing process.

Formation for Ministry

Our baptism calls us to serve others in the Church and the Formation for Ministry Program prepares candidates to hear, discern, and accept that call. The two-year program prepares adults of mature faith to assist pastors to serve the needs of the Church. There will be a virtual information session on Wednesday, April 29. For more information, contact Dc. Jeff Dixe at 315-470-1491.

Virtues, Explained!

This cardinal virtue of temperance is shown in the person who is master of his passions and his attachment to the world. "It ensures the will's mastery over instincts and keeps desires within the limits of what is honorable," we read in the Catechism.

Blessing for Spring

Dear Lord,
As this new season begins,
bring new life to our hearts as well.
Prune what has grown
despondent,
brush back that which darkens
and clouds.
As the flowers bud and bloom,
bless us with new wonder, new hope, new promise, new joy.
Amen.

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

What do Catholics believe about the end of the world?

Answer:

We hear the phrase "the end of the world" casually today. Often in film or media, it means the end of civil society or the threat of human annihilation by natural disasters. For the Christian, our perspective is distinctly Christ-centered. Numerous times through the Gospel, Jesus notes that he will come again, even after he has ascended into heaven. The Church typically refers to this as the Second Coming of Jesus or the Latin "Parousia," meaning "presence" or "arrival."

We believe that Christ will come again, and at his Second Coming, temporal time will end. Human history will end, at least as we know it. However, it doesn't mean that creation will be destroyed. The book of Revelation speaks of a renewal, indeed a "new heaven and a new earth" (Rev 21:1). Christ will come again in glory. Our souls will be reunited with our bodies. While our lives were judged individually at our deaths, which we call the particular judgment, something new will happen here. Theologians call it the general judgment or the last judgment, in which our deeds and the effects — for good or ill — will be known to all. For the early Christians, this second coming was hoped for! They knew it was the completion of God's work of redemption for the human race. We, too, should pray with them, "Come Lord Jesus!"
