Very Special Thank You ... to all those who helped with our Summer Mission with Steve Angrisano. Thank you to Joan Stoker and the Music Campers and helpers, Eric Feola for helping with sound and lighting, Brian Eberst, those who helped with the Saturday reception, Sunday coffee, Deb Amidon and Kathryn Eberst who worked the ticket tables, and Susan Green who prepared the Green Room, and thank you to Fr. Kevin for giving us the opportunity to invite this wonderful artist to share his music and stories of faith.

Call for Singers!

The Sacred Music Society of Syracuse is seeking interested singers and students (16 and older) from around the Diocese of Syracuse to join a Festival Choir in its performance of the St. Cecelia Mass by Charles Gounod as a concert, with orchestra, under the direction of Peter Ciarelli, at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Syracuse, 2:00pm Sunday, November 22, 2026.

Rehearsals will be held at St. Daniel's Catholic Church, 3004 Court Street, Syracuse, 3:00 to 5:00pm, Sundays, October 4th to November 15th. No experience necessary!

Rehearsals and Concert are free and open to the public. Voluntary donations to feed the homeless will be accepted by Music for the Mission.

For more information or to sign up please call or email Megan Fallon (315) 727-6336, syrdiofestchorus@gmail.com.

Branch Out and Grow

A caring, compassionate, and supportive environment for men and women who have experienced divorce or separation Wednesday, September 16 Living Single. If you are interested in joining the meetings, learning more, or talking one-on-one, contact Family/Respect Life Office at pjowett@syrdio.org or 315-472-6754 opt. 9

A Blessing for Grandparents

Dear God,
Bless the grandparents in our community. Stir in them a sense of caring, thoughtfulness, and kindness toward their preceding generations. Like St. Anne and St. Joachim, inspire them to live lives of brave faith and virtue. Give them and their families warm memories, happy times, and bright hope.
Amen.

Virtues, Explained!

The modern world we all must share seems, in some ways, to be shrinking.

For good or ill, thanks to the internet, the widespread use of social media, and the omnipresence of smartphones, we are finding ourselves interacting frequently with people who live, act, and think differently than we do.

It may well be that the virtue of friendliness, known officially as affability, is more important than ever.

In fact, being attached as it is to the virtue of justice, friendliness is a debt we owe our fellow human beings, writes St. Thomas Aquinas (Sum., II:II, 114, Art. 2). The fact is, we cannot evangelize without kindness. We can see this in the instructions Christ gives his disciples in the Gospel of Matthew: "As you enter a house, wish it peace. If the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it; if not, let your peace return to you." (Matthew 10:13)
