Thanksgiving Baskets

On Saturday, November 22, the Mustard Seed distributed 25 Thanksgiving baskets to families in the Georgetown area. The baskets were filled with turkeys, dressing, potatoes, veggies, homemade strawberry jam, and a gift card to Aldi's for perishable items. Thank you to all who helped the day of and to all who support the Mustard Seed.

Next Saturday, December 20, this same group of dedicated volunteers will be back in Georgetown to help distribute the Christmas baskets. Special thank you to those who so graciously share their time.
