From Your Evangelization Committee

Many of us know the importance of reading Scripture, daily prayer and attending weekly Mass. You may ask yourself, isn't that enough? is it necessary for me to commit to joining a small group Bible Study, how will that benefit me? I recently read an article on "wordgo.org" about the benefits of Bible Study.

Here are some benefits of Bible Study to consider:

It provides encouragement: A small group is a safe space where members can encourage each other during struggles and strengthen each other along the path of spiritual growth.

It keeps us accountable: We mature quicker in our faith if we have spiritual companions who show interest in how we are doing in our faith journey and help us to be more fruitful in our lives.

It transforms our families, workplaces and communities: When we study the Bible together, God promises to reveal Himself, to teach us how to obey Him, and to show us how to love one another. When we are taking steps to be more like Jesus, our family, work places and communities will be transformed.

Can you think of some people you could invite to experience this transformation with you?

Invitation to join:

We invite you to join our Sunday morning Bible study, or start one of your own with friends and family. There are many opportunities for study and spiritual growth on Formed.org which is free for you through St. James. If you want to sign up for the Sunday morning study beginning October 2nd, contact Michelle Blanchard at mrrblanchard@gmail.com

The Lost & Found box will be in the Hurd Street entrance. If you've misplaced something, please check the box.

All items unclaimed, either from dish table or Lost & Found, will be given to the Mustard Seed next week.
Thank you.
